

SIGNIFANCE OF THE 7TH MARCH SPEECH OF BANGABANDHU

Introduction: The father of the nation BANGABANDHU SHEIKH MUJIBUR RAHMAN is also known as the freedom of the father for Bengali. without him we could not achieve our sovereign country. He is the Proponent of this nation. he is the sculpturer of the country. he is the founder of “AWAMI MUSLIM LEAGUE” in 1955. also he is the founder of 1966 which is known as the emancipation of the Bengali. He declared the speech of 7th march in 1971. He gave his important speech in front of 7 lakh people on suhrawardi uddan. Bengali fought for their emancipation on this speech.

FIDEL CASTRO compared this speech on the “Himalaya”. he said “ I havenot seen Himalaya I have seen BANGABANDHU .from his speech we can resume his supremacy ,patriotism and accountability for his nation. The USA president john Abraham Lincon considered it as a 3rd precious speech in the world.

WHY IS THIS IMPORTANT FOR THE BENGALI NATION:

- Bengali got inspiration from this speech and they fought for freedom and took away the sovereignty from the opposite party. the bold line of the speech of 7th march is “when we have sacrificed our blood we will give more people from this country will be free from enemy inshaalah.” it is one of the most popular declaration of the speech. the Bengali people irrespective of old, new, all kinds of people are aware of this speech. it is the enthusiastic line for Bengali. People sacrificed their life on the based of this speech. we love our country and we love our nation.

- One day we were enslaved to the Pakistan. we did not get our equal rights and deprived of our basic human rights. We took our independent nation from west pakistnai foe. without his speech we could not achieve our nation.
- This speech represent our country all over the world. UNESCO recognized it the 3rd significant speech on the whole world on 30 th October 2017.

THE PRINCIPAL MANUSCRIPT OF 7TH MARCH SPEECH:

Sheikh Mujibur Rahman delivering his speech on 7 March 1971

Native name	বঙ্গবন্ধুর ৭ই মার্চের ভাষণ
Date	7 March 1971
Time	2:45 pm — 3:07pm (UTC+6)
Duration	Approximately 19 Minutes
Venue	Ramna Race Course (present day Suhrawardy Udyan)

Location	Ramna , Dhaka , East Pakistan
Coordinates	 23.7331°N 90.3984°E
Type	Speech
Theme	Call for civil disobedience, informal declaration of independence of Bangladesh
Filmed by	Abul Khair and M Abul Khayer , MNA

"Bangabandhu started his address like this: "My dear brothers, I have come before you today with a heavy heart. All of you know and understand how hard we have tried. But it is a matter of sorrow that the streets of Dhaka, Chittagong, Khulna, Rangpur and Rajshahi have today become coloured with the blood of my brothers. Today, our people (Banglar manush) want freedom, they want to live, they want their rights." It was a highly effective introduction to the speech, which laid the foundation for the main address and provided indications to the audience regarding what was to follow."

The speech of 7th March is known as the historic speech. On this day, Sheikh mujibur Rahman has delivered the speech in 1971. He has given the speech in the Race course moydan. On this day, more than two million people have heard this speech. They were present in that place. It was a time when there was tension arose between the military establishment of West Pakistan and the political. In this speech he has said that This time the struggle is our freedom. The speech was so special for the Bengali people. It was an encouragement for them to win the liberation war. The speech encouraged people to move for the struggle in 1971. He has raised his voice to start the liberation struggle. The speech declared the independence of the country. People have got together to make the country free from Pakistan. People of all age has taken part in the liberation war. They made the country free from the enemy. The speech has touched the heart of every citizen of the country. His speech has guided people all around the country. The citizens have taken part in building the nation. The speech was recognized by UNESCO. People all around the world know the speech as the historic speech. On national days like independent days, the speech is played in the morning. It's a part of the documentary in the world. The speech has got higher value. The speech is the courage of the entire nation.

The 7th march speech is the one kind of self satisfaction and self identity to us.now it is registered on the “THE MEMORY OF THE WORLD INTERNATIONAL REGISTER”of UNESCO .indeed it is the first step of our emancipation and democracy.we are famed with this speech.

THE END